Girls may wear a discreet gold or silver chain, with or without a cross. For Years 7 and 8 the wearing of make-up and other jewellery is prohibited. However, girls with pierced ears may wear a pair of small, plain, silver or gold studs. Nose or tongue studs are not permitted. For Years 9 to 13 make-up, if worn, must be discreet and nail varnish must be clear. Hair accessories must be simple and business-like, plain navy or gold.

*A white blouse/shirt must be worn for the Commemoration Service, 'Speeches', the Carol Service and on other occasions when required by the Headmaster

Summer Term

Pupils may assume 'shirt-sleeve' order during the Summer Term when the Headmaster's notice is posted which permits them to do so. This means: no blazer, no pullover, shirt sleeves may be neatly rolled up.

YEARS 11 TO 13

The sports kit required for new students joining in Years 11-13 will largely be determined by their option choices for Games each term and the extra-curricular sports clubs students wish to participate in. To avoid you purchasing kit which is not required, we have highlighted below the kit which pupils are likely to need for September and the Autumn Term.

Should you require any advice or your child is joining the school mid-year, please contact our Director of Sport, Mrs Hopkins at s.hopkins@herefordcs.com.

All students in Years 11 to 13 will require HCS tracksuit bottoms, hoodie and trainers. Plus:

Rugby - HCS rugby socks, navy shorts, HCS training shirt (Year 11+) or HCS reversible rugby shirt (Year 10 Only), boots, mouthguard

Football - HCS rugby socks, navy shorts, boots, shin pads, HCS training shirt (Year 11+) or HCS reversible rugby shirt (Year 10 only)
