FROM THE HEAD

Thank you to those Nursery parents who were able to come to our Tapestry presentation. Tapestry is an online learning journal, to which both school and parents can add comments, photos and observations, which we are introducing into our Nursery. Thank you too to those parents who came to support 6G's Cathedral Service on Wednesday. Last night was a busy evening for Year 5 parents and the teaching staff too - again my thanks to all. I hope that Year 5 parents found the evening informative and useful.

Next week, I look forward to welcoming Year 3 parents to the Year 3 Parents' Evening on Monday, and as many parents as can make it to Wednesday's PTA Coffee Morning. Meanwhile, next week's calendar is full of fixtures for our older pupils as well as an exciting trip to Ascari's Café for some of our youngest. Well done indeed to those children in Year 6 who have taken part in the Senior School Sports Scholarship trials and Music Scholarship auditions recently. Good luck to all those of our Year 6 pupils who are sitting Senior School exams next week.

Chris Wright

PUNCTUATION CHALLENGE

This week, we have three separate challenges - one for Years 3-6, one for Years 1-2 and one for parents and staff. All entries to Mr Wright by Tuesday 29th January via the School Office (hard copies will be sent home with children today), or via email to c.wright@herefordcs.com Good luck!

Challenge for Y3-6. Read the text below and make any corrections necessary. Focus: capital letters, full-stops and one spelling error.

All was quiet in the village of crabtree the houses around the village green were dozing in the warmth of the early summer sun norman, a medieval farmhouse, was the oldest house in the village he had been built. when crabtree was nothing but farmland. he was nearly one thousand years old, rather plain to look at, short-sighted and deaf He was so old he had to be protected so that no one would knock him down standing at the top of the green, where she could keep an eye on the whole village through her lattice windows stood elizabeth. she was a very proud manor house with beautiful decorated brick chimnies she had been built in the reign of queen elizabeth I, and all cottages nearby, would whisper and giggle to each other when she started to tell everyone how old she was.

Challenge for Y1-2. Please correct the following passage, there are:

- 2 missing full stops
- 4 misplaced or missing capital letters
- 3 missed finger spaces

one Day there was a little mole who was fed up of living underground inthe dark and the cold So he scrabbled and scratched and scraped, workingbusily with his little paws till at last, pop! his snout came out into the sunlight and he found himselfrolling in The warm grass of a great meadow

Challenge for adults. Focus: apostrophes. Please correct the following:

The steak shouldve been cooked for longer.

The grocers prices are very reasonable

Shed have shared her last crust with anyone.

The childrens menu is refreshingly sophisticated.

Dont even think of taking it out of the oven yet.

The womens institute is having a jumble sale today.

Peter put the DVDs in order.

Dinners at six o clock today.

The teachers anger at the price of books was intense. (plural)

Janes vegetable soup is tastier than Sues.

St. James church has a wonderful stained-glass window.

We sell apple's, pear's and peach's.

The cat hurt its paw.

GAMES DEPARTMENT

Despite the bitterly cold weather, a full programme of Games and matches have taken place this week. The Colts A footballers returned from the Winterfold Football Tournament as Plate winners after a difficult group section whilst the Colts B, C and D footballers along with the Colts A, B and C netballers came away from matches against The Downs without losing. Next week, there is U8 & U9 football away at Abberley Hall on Tuesday, and on Wednesday, all of Years 5&6 are playing either football or netball against RGS The Grange. There is also a football match on Saturday 2nd February against The Downs, whilst on Sunday 3rd February a team of cross country runners will take part in Abberley Hall's relays.

ASSEMBLIES THIS WEEK

Monday (Reception – Year 6): Mr Debenham spoke about tolerance. He told us the story of the blind people and the elephant, explaining that while each had part of the truth, none of them had seen the whole picture. We talked about the importance of being slow to argue and quick to listen to each other.

The Blind People and the Elephant

Six blind people were taken to visit an elephant. The first felt its tail, and went away saying that the elephant was like a rope. The second felt the elephant's ear and said that the elephant was like a huge fan. The next felt the trunk and described the elephant as a great snake. The next felt the side and said it was a wall. When the next felt the tusk he thought it was a spear. And the last person felt one of the elephant's legs, and he thought an elephant was like a tree trunk.

The six blind people met up later and started to discuss what they thought of the elephant. 'It's a rope,' said one. 'It's a fan,' said another. And the two began to fight, each saying that the other one hadn't visited the elephant at all. Then the others joined in: 'No, it's a snake!' 'A wall!' 'A spear!' 'A tree trunk!'

Tuesday (Reception – Year 2): We talked about tolerance and understanding. Mr Wright read 'Hairy Maclary' and we talked about how the dogs were all different yet still friends. We also talked about how the dogs had been quick to assume that the cat was trying to scare them, rather than pausing to find out more. 'Dear Lord, Please help us to be slow to argue with each other and quick to listen to each other'.

Wednesday (Years 2 – 6): In place of assembly this week, children in Years 2-6 attended a service in the Cathedral led by 6G. 6G told us of John the Baptist and the Baptism of Jesus.

Friday (Reception - Year 6): Mr Debenham talked about how to react when we get angry, using a balloon to demonstrate how we can control and use our emotions wisely, rather than explode.
